Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur FROM THE AUTHOR OF BEST-SELLING EPIC FANTASY 'THE QUEEN'S CURSE' "A short yet powerful paranormal mystery/fantasy." Customer"Great book that really got my brain spinning on the nature of freedom." erTana Woodwolf wakes to find herself trapped within a strange land.

She learns quickly from the faces of the others that this is no paradise she has been transported to; it is a prison.Unable to escape, Tana soon discovers that a dark and malignant force is dragging her and the other prisoners, one-by-one, to unreachable higher rooms of the tower from which they never return.If she is to ever escape from there then she will need to use all the guile and strength she has within her. Does one of the others hold the key? Or is it something else within the prison that she needs to study?As the darkness comes nearer, a strange voice whispers;"Look and be free... You have to let go of what you know."Should she trust the voice? Should she trust the others? Does she even have a choice?As despair and terror closes in around them all, only one person can discover the truth and save them...Note from the author: This is a stand alone story by Natasja Hellenthal (The Queen's Curse) that is technically set in between 'Call Off The Search' Book One and 'Children Of The Sun' Book Two in the Comyenti Series, but can be read and enjoyed separately.
