Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur
There really are things out there going bump in the night. Maria Christine lives life at the fringes of society as one of the Were, a race if beings from which legends have been born. Vampyre, Were, succubus, feeder - her dark existence stealing life from strangers on the fringes of society will soon change. When forced to abandon the only life she knows, Maria finds herself endangered by Were from all sides and learns a tough lesson - she isnt the scariest thing out there. HUNTED
By other Were to strengthen their CovensBy those with great power to further their own agendasBy those who would wipe the scourge of her race and her own special kind of evil from the earthBy the Hunter who must kill her to fulfill his destiny, but wants to protect her instead Can she choose between death or life on her own terms or will that choice be made for her? The only constant is her ever present hunger, driving her to feed.Prsentation de l'diteurThere really are things out there going bump in the night.
