Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA year ago Declan Jasper was entertaining sold-out arena crowds as the lead singer of Black Rainbows. But that came to an explosive end when the band got caught up in a criminal cover-up, one that ended with the entire band dead. At least thats what everyone is supposed to think. Now, Dex is hiding in plain sight, working as the school band director in a sleepy little mountain resort town while under the protection of a hard-nosed FBI agent. Instead of eyeliner and black leather, he now wears glasses and corduroy. Instead of having sexy coedsboth male and femaethrow themselves into his bed, hes dealing with teenage angst and grumpy parents. At the top of his troubles list is Kelsey Walker, a junior high bundle of rare musical talent in the form of one confused, messed-up adolescent. Dex figures the problem comes from her broken home and wants to help. But when he meets her father, sexy bar-owner, Jack Walker, he realizes that instead of helping he's probably just bringing more trouble and danger to their door. Dex has to stay alive until the trial to bring his bandmates' murderers to justice, but can he do that if it means sacrificing his own happily ever after?
